THE COURSE

This 4-day course will provide a comprehensive overview of the aural skills and musicianship required for VCE music. Using a range of tools such as rhythmic syllables, solfege and the voice, students will gain a thorough understanding of concepts including scales, keys, melody, rhythm, dictation and chord progressions.

All students are required to have a copy of Deborah Smith's Music Solo Performance - Units 1 to 4 Student Book (2nd edition). Your attendance will be confirmed upon receipt of the booking form below and payment which can be made by cash, direct deposit (please contact the Melba Office), cheque or money order. All bookings and payments must be received by Monday 21st September. For more info please contact the Melba office on 03 9429 6151.

No refunds will apply after 21 September 2009. If this course is cancelled due to insufficient enrolments your payment will be refunded in full.

THE PRESENTER

Jennifer Gillan completed her Bachelor of Music (cello) and Diploma of Education at Monash University. She holds a Diploma of Conducting from the Kodaly Institute in Hungary and a Master of Music Studies from the University of Queensland. Jennifer has lectured in Australia, USA and East London and currently teaches musicianship at Melbourne University, the Victorian College of the Arts Secondary School and is Head of Choral at Melbourne Girls Grammar School. Jennifer was recently a presenter at the Music Technology in Education Conference in Melbourne, where she trained teachers on the use of the Kodaly method in a technology classroom. She was a founding member of the Young Voices of Melbourne and has conducted many choirs. She is Secretary of the Victorian branch of the Kodaly Institute of Australia and is passionate about the importance of music literacy.
