

SHE'S BACK! Don't miss out – two intensive workshops offered.

Deborah Smith, author of the highly successful
“Musicianship & Aural Training” series presents:

TWO BRAND NEW workshops for Teachers!!

When: Thursday 18th February 2010

Where: St Paul's Anglican Grammar, Cross's Rd, Traralgon

Workshop 1: 9.00am until 12.30pm – Games, Dances and lots more!
For teachers of Upper Primary and Lower Secondary Music Classes

Workshop 2: 1.30pm until 5.00pm – Ideas, activities and creative ways to use music in your classroom
For music & generalist (with basic music knowledge) primary teachers

Have you heard what music teachers everywhere are saying about Deborah?

Deborah Smith has a personable manner and explains concepts so clearly and logically that you wonder why you ever struggled with them in the first place! She is inspirational but has her feet firmly set in the reality of the classroom. I would recommend Deborah as a teacher, lecturer and mentor without reservation. She has much to offer the music world.

Jenny Gillan Music teacher, lecturer and conductor

I have attended many of Deborah Smith's workshops over the past few years. I have always found her sessions to be informative, fun, and of inestimable value to my own teaching. Deb's workshops always leave me with new ideas about how to do things better in the Music classroom.
Aaron Searle, Director of Music, Aitken College

Deborah Smith is an accomplished music literacy teacher who practices what she preaches. Deborah has a way of making the mundane fun and the intricate easy as you sing and listen and learn the balance between the ear and the eye. In line with Kodaly's three “Ps” Deborah is Practical, Pertinent and Punchy. “He who has ears to hear and eyes to see – let him sing” Fiona Phillips, Faculty of Arts and Education, Deakin University

I guarantee, no matter how advanced your current skills, you will emerge a better, more confident musician and, with the further aid of Deborah's superb textbooks and CDs, a much better music teacher!
Jennifer Mackenzie. Music Teacher
